Wonderful world of Colours

Not just a run in the park

JAMIE STEWART
The Shafter Press

Mannel Park was the site for a variety of activities during the 2020 Shafter Colours Festival this past Saturday. Even the appearance of rain couldn't dampen the spirits of the participants and the crowd that enjoyed the festivities.

The morning started just down the street from Mannel Park with the Shafter Colours Fun Run/Walk. This event has been one of the most popular of the festival since its inception, with the participants running or walking a course of stations in which the participants are doused with blasts color. By the time they reach the finish line they look like a Jackson Pollack painting.

Noteworthy is a special participant who has competed in the event

Larry Starrh's newest production, "The Big Secret," took center stage at the Shafter Colours Festival and drew sellouts for the tale of a poor farmer and his family.

The play was full of lively music that paired up with the story that made you think as well as enjoy the acting and music. The production was directed by Brent Starrh. Starrh has a bachelor's degree in theater arts from Westmont College and put his knowledge to good use with a play that blended intricate musical numbers with some deep dialogue that satisfied the audience, in an evening filled with applause and laughter.

The story is of a dirt poor farmer, Lester, played by Larry Starrh. Lester has a See 'THE BIG SECRET' Page 5

Friday night came alive with local talent

JAMIE STEWART
The Shafter Press

The music was the star at the event at Shafter Veterans Hall on Friday night as part of the Shafter Colours Festival.

Several local singers put their talents on display at the Live Music Night. There was some great music in addition to good food and drink.

One singer of note was Shafter boy Devon Ford, who was playing one of his last local performances. Ford is moving up into the mountains, limiting his performance schedule in the area.

Ford sprinkled his playlist with a couple of covers, as well as several originals. Ford writes songs about his everyday life and those he loves in it. One such song was

"Q Street," a song that he said goes back to a time he was living on Q Street in Bakersfield and was with a girlfriend and was robbed of everything they had. Ford is the grandson of Gerald Ford, of Gerald Ford Trucking.

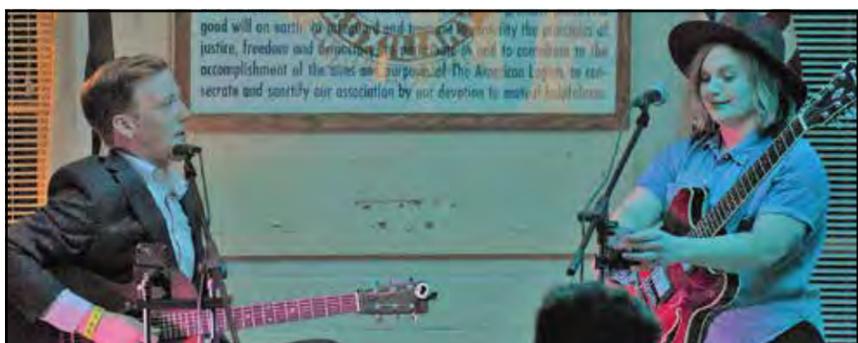

Hometown boy Devon Ford performs one of his original songs.

Tim Styles was on the performer's list, with songs that recalled times that saw him struggling in love and life. His voice was a great combination of a rasp and a strength that reminded you of a good blues artist.

He ended his set with a local favorite made famous by Dwight Yoakum and Buck Owens, a powerful rendition of "Streets of Bakersfield."

David T8TZ gave the crowd a dose of poetic songs that had a powerful message. See LOCAL Page 9

The Charlie Zanne Band offered a mix of blues and folk music.

Child, 6, dies in rollover

JAMIE STEWART
The Shafter Press

A 6-year-old boy died in rollover accident in Shafter on Friday afternoon.

Jaden Jimenez was airlifted from the scene and later succumbed to his injuries.

The two other occupants of the car, including the driver, had not been identified as of Tuesday night.

At about 3:30 p.m., the Shafter Police Department was dispatched to the mishap. See CHILD Page 4

High Speed Rail stays on track

High Speed Rail conducted an open house to update the public on current progress of the project's construction through the Central Valley on Tuesday at the Wasco Community Center.

Toni Tinoco, information officer for High Speed Rail, said the 2020 Business Plan was released in mid-February and is available for public review on the HSR website, hsr.ca.gov. There is a 60-day opportunity for public review, and comments can be made on-line.

It is anticipated that electric-powered trains will be running between Bakersfield and Merced by 2030. As of the most

The Children's Workshop had kids create their own masterpieces and put them on display.

All of the museums in town were open throughout the weekend, including the Minter Field Air Museum, which had a variety of vehicles and planes on display.

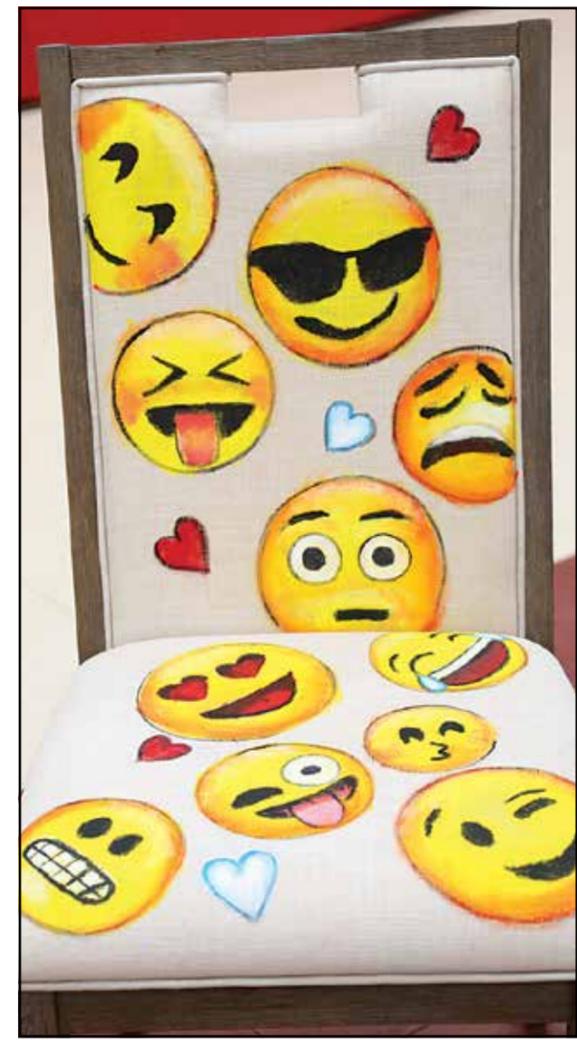

Charlotte White, a noted local artist, paints a quick watercolor. She has works of art on display at several businesses in town, including City Hall.

Colleen Diltz, a local photographer who has had her works on display at several Colours events, had a collection of wildflower photos in this year's show.

The Car Show had a mix of classic dream cars and souped-up trucks and hot rods.

A colorful chair was decorated by children at the Children's Art Workshop. The artists are Ayleen Quezada, Emma Esquivel, Cadence Richardson, Natelie Sahagun, Vyan Ruiz, Andrea Garcia and Gimena Diaz.

in the 30000 block of West Tulare Avenue. Upon arrival, the officers found three occupants in the vehicle. Police said the vehicle left the roadway and rolled over, uprooting a tree and taking down two others before ending upside down at the edge of an orchard. Emergency personnel used life-saving techniques on Jimenez before having him airlifted to a local hospital where he died at 4:45 p.m. The driver of the vehicle and one other passenger sustained mild to moderate injuries and were transported by ambulance to a hospital for treatment.

West Tulare was closed between Poplar Avenue and Ryan Drive for several hours while the incident was being analyzed. According to Shafter Police Sergeant Lionel Lopez, the cause of the crash is still being determined as the investigation continues.

Sergeant Lionel Lopez comments at the accident scene.

The vehicle ended upside down in the edge of the orchard after taking out a tree and downing two others.

NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a Trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a Trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, size and dollar amount of outstanding liens that may exist on the property by contacting the County Recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for providing this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property.

NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this Notice of Sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924 g. of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about Trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of the property, you may call (661) 664-6899 and reference the file number assigned to this Trustee's sale of 20190661. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale date may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend at the scheduled sale.

since the beginning of the festival and has played a key role in its success. Helen Gaede, who directs the Shafter Kiddie College, has been an integral part of the event from the beginning, and she still laces up her sneakers and finishes the course as she approaches the 80-year-old mark.

The day was filled with music as the Shafter High Jazz Band entertained the crowd with a bunch of standards from the big band swinging days. Led by advisor Phillip Bustamante, the band plays a variety of selections from the '40s and '50s.

For the car enthusiasts, there was a Car Show at the park, with over two dozen vehicles on display, including classic dream cars, hot rods and loaded pickups. Attendees could get an up-close look at the vehicles, with some of them with their hoods up, exposing some lovingly built, restored and maintained engines.

Folklorico dancers performed throughout the afternoon, with a variety of groups showing their talents. The performers ranged from the Redwood Elementary Eagles Folklorico to the Shafter Senior Folklorico Dancers. The event brought this rich tradition to life, with the bright, colorful costumes, the intricate footwork and choreography and the passion that fills the folklorico genre. Deanna Rodriguez-Root and her daughter, Brandi Root, have been an important part of keeping the art of folklorico alive in Shafter, teaching several groups in town and letting their passion for the art infuse the hearts of the rest of the city.

Later in the afternoon, it was time for the annual Chili Cook-Off. The number of entrants were down this year due to a list of restrictions put in by the Health Department that made the cooking process more regulated than in the past.

What the competition lacked in numbers, it made up for in variety and taste, the judges said. Each recipe had its own distinct flavor and degree of heat. There was an entrant with Italian sausage, another one with what some say is a "true chili," with no beans in the mix.

Scott Hurlbert was back with his fiery concoction. Mack Attack and Team Toews entered blends of meat, chilis and a mellow flavor with a hint of heat.

But, the overall winner of the event was Zeb Smith, with his Cowboy Chili. His recipe was flavorful, chunky and full of attitude. It won the People's Choice by 10 votes to capture the trophy and bragging rights for the next year.

Folklorico dancing was performed at the park by several groups. This one was the Chinelos Comparza San Juditas Tadeo, traditionally one of the highlights at the annual Cinco de Mayo Festival.

'The Big Secret' was a big hit daughter, Mary, played by Ashleigh Janzen, who is in love with a missionary that lives at the labor camp in the area. The missionary, Dwight, was performed by Jason Gauthier. Janzen and Gauthier had great chemistry and gave the story a boost with a couple of lovely songs.

Starrh made the statement in the production that all families have secrets, and that some are bigger than others, that affect those who you love.

Lester is in cahoots with the local farrier, Manny, who was played hilariously by Dan Carrion, as partners to beat the Paul and Philo, a couple of brothers who have won the Biggest Pumpkin Award at the county fair for the past three years. The brothers were played by Ted Wiedmann and Brian Crawford, who both drew some of the biggest laughs of the night.

Lester's wife, Ella Mae, was played by Bethany Rowlee, who played four different characters in Starrh's play last year at the Colours Festival. In this production, she had just one character, but still showed such a range of emotions that it showed her chops as an actor.

Another highlight of the night was the energy and aplomb of the youngest major player in the production, Chloe Boozer, who played Ruth, a child of the labor camp who comes to stay for a short time with Lester and his family. Boozer showed a maturity beyond her years with featured song as well as a big part of dialogue.

At first, you think that the "Big Secret" is the scheme to grab the title at the county fair from Phil and Philo. That is until Starrh surprises you with a twist that is reminiscent of "The Sixth Sense."

Ella Mae is actually dead and appears to only Lester, giving him advice and trying to convince Lester to tell their daughter the truth about her death. He had told everyone, including Mary, that his beloved wife died of a heart problem. The truth, the "Big Secret," is that she committed suicide.

Shana Starrh and Isaac Gaitan, two of the talented ensemble, show the heartache that can come with the farming life.

Toward the end of the play, Lester finally takes his wife's advice and tells his daughter the truth.

Lester realizes that the secret did nothing but keep him from moving on. The production was accompanied by a live band that included Brian Boozer, Chyna Charbonneau, Wynston Hamann, Caleb Privett and Michelle Starrh. They added another layer to the production that it wouldn't have had with a soundtrack.

Winter is cool for SHS

JAMIE STEWART
The Shafter Press

The Shafter High winter sports teams had several of squads make the post-season, with the Shafter boys varsity soccer team making their way into the Valley Championship Division IV game at Garces High School.

After receiving a bye in the first round, the Generals, seeded No. 3 in the tournament, beat sixth-seeded Lindsay, 4-3, to reach the semifinals. In that game, Shafter went up against a Woodlake team that had upset second-seeded Chowchilla. The Generals had no trouble in dispatching the Tigers, shutting them out 4-0.

The Shafter players were a bundle of nerves as they started off the championship game against Garces. They also were hit with an early questionable penalty call, giving the Rams a penalty kick, which they converted into a 1-0 lead. The game continued to go downhill from there, as the Generals could never get on track, dropping the game, 4-0. They still had an successful season that propelled them into the title game for the first time in several years.

On the girls' side, the Lady Generals came in seeded No. 5 in Division V. Shafter opened their quest for a title with a 6-0 pounding of the Horned Toads of Coalinga High School. They then played the fourth seed, Roosevelt High School from Fresno. The Lady Generals played a tough match, but could not overcome a halftime deficit and dropped the game, 2-1. The season saw the Lady Generals dominate opponents in the SSL, especially on the defensive side of the ball, giving them an opportunity to score on offense.

On the basketball court, the boys varsity basketball team came into the Valley Tournament seeded No. 9 in Division III. They opened against the Mustangs of Tulare Western, the No. 8 seed. After playing them even for the first half, the host Mustangs were able to pull away in the second, ending the Generals' season, 68-49. The Generals finished 21-8 overall, with an 8-2 record in the SSL. With six juniors returning next year, it odds are good for a return trip to the post-season next year for the Generals.

The Lady Generals basketball team, because of their success in recent years, were competing in the more competitive Division II, requiring them to face schools with more numbers than they have, but Shafter showed its competitiveness and the reason that they belong in that division. The Lady Generals came into the tournament seeded No. 13 and had to face fourth-seeded Nipomo in the opening round. Shafter went toe-to-toe with the host team on the coast and came out on top with a 46-42 victory. They then faced the No. 5 seeded Selma Bears. The Lady Generals used their quickness on defense and the outstanding play of Monica Birruetta on offense to keep the game close. Ultimately, the Lady Bears managed to pull out a 10-point victory, ending the Lady Generals' season, 67-57.

The Lady Generals overall record was barely .500 but didn't reflect their talent level because they played such a difficult nonconference schedule, going up against a lot of teams a division or two higher than them.

In SSL play, the Lady Generals ended the year with a share of the league title at 9-2.

PUBLIC NOTICE NOTICE OF PUBLIC AUCTION ON March 16, 2020 to March 18, 2020 OF TAX DEFAULTED PROPERTY FOR DELINQUENT TAXES

On November 05, 2019, Kern County Treasurer-Tax Collector, Jordan Kaufman, was directed by Kern County Board of Supervisors' Resolution #2019-336 to conduct a public auction sale in accordance with the provisions of Division 1, Part 6, Chapter 7 of the California Revenue and Taxation Code. The tax-defaulted properties listed below are subject to the Treasurer-Tax Collector's power of sale.

This is a public notice that I will sell the properties beginning at 8:00 A.M. P.S.T. on March 16, 2020 at www.kcttc.co.kern.ca.us.

The sale will be conducted as a public auction to the highest bidder for cash in lawful money of the United States or negotiable paper, for not less than the minimum bid as shown in this notice. Bidders must submit a refundable deposit of $5,000.00 electronically to www.kcttc.co.kern.ca.us no later than 5:00 P.M. P.S.T. on Friday March 06, 2020. The deposit will be applied to the successful bidder's purchase price. Any parcel remaining unsold at the conclusion of the auction may be resold within a 90-day period. If necessary, the subsequent sale will begin at 8:00 A.M. P.S.T. on June 08, 2020 at www.kcttc.co.kern.ca.us.

Properties that are redeemed (paid) in full by 5:00 P.M. P.S.T., Friday March 13, 2020, will not be sold. The right of redemption will cease at that time. Properties not redeemed will be sold.

If the properties are sold, parties of interest (as defined in California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 4675) have a right to file a claim with the county for any excess proceeds from the sale. Excess proceeds are the amount of the highest bid in excess of the liens and costs of the sale that are paid from the sale price. Notice will be given to parties of interest, pursuant to law, if excess proceeds result from the sale.

The following is a partial list; a complete list may be obtained by calling our internet advertiser, Grant Street Group toll-free at 1-877-274-9320 or by viewing the list at www.kcttc.co.kern.ca.us. You may access public computers at all Kern County Libraries.

The Assessor's parcel number, when used to describe the property in this list, refers to the Assessor's map book, the map page, the block on the map (if applicable) and the individual parcel on the map page or in the block. The Assessor's maps and further explanation of the parcel numbering system are available in the Assessor's office.

I declare under penalty of perjury, that the foregoing is true and correct.

The Charlie Zanne Band had the crowd tapping their toes with songs that were written with a salute to local life. The band is actually a duo made up of Amanda McCaslin and Jake Neuman. Neuman plays the lead guitar and McCaslin does the majority of the singing and performed a couple of new songs that she had written, one of which she wrote about a homeless person that walked through a cemetery every day. The song was an eerie one that also harkened back to the times of a bluesy folk music. This was the first year that the event was held at the Veterans Hall, which provided plenty of room for chairs to sit and floor space to get up and dance.

recent forecast, the cost is estimated to be $20.6 billion to $23.4 billion and that funding is available through the state bond, a federal grant and the Cap and Trade Program.

By 2022, construction of right of way along the 119-mile section between Madera and Wasco should be completed, Tonico said, and the entire right of way from San Francisco to Los Angeles should have environmental clearance. She said there are currently about 700 onsite construction workers on the project.

A request for proposal for track and systems was put out Feb. 19, and bids are due June 30. There are three qualified contractors who will be presenting their proposals. Acquisition of rolling stock and the selection of a private operator are described in the plan. Extension of HSR to Los Angeles and to the Bay Area will be built as funding becomes available.

Antonio Canete represented California Railroad Builders, the contractor for Construction Package 4, which is a 21-mile segment running from Poplar Avenue, north of Shafter, to Garces Highway. That project involves 12 structures, 88 utility relocations, 2 railroad shooflies and four at-grade closures. He said that 85% of the right of way is currently under construction.

Photos were shown of the current construction at the crossings of Garces Highway, Pond Avenue, Poso Creek, McCombs Avenue, Merced Avenue, and the Wasco Viaduct. The huge earth-berm being built between the high-speed rail alignment and the BNSF Railway was described as an "intrusion protection barrier" to protect both railroads. When completed, the High Speed Rail will be protected by an 8-foot-high fence on both sides.

High Speed Rail, the City of Wasco and Amtrak have been working on a concept to provide for Amtrak passengers. The current Amtrak station building will be demolished, as the High Speed Rail alignment goes right through it. However, the current Amtrak boarding platform and shelter will remain. Access will be made available by a tunnel under High Speed Rail. The tunnel will be accessed on both sides by stairs and ramps. Parking will be made available along G Street. The responsibility of maintenance and security will be part of an expected agreement between HSR, the City of Wasco, and Amtrak.

Construction will start within the next month or two on the temporary

HOW TO ADVERTISE EFFECTIVELY AND ECONOMICALLY

Our sales representatives are pleased to help you compose the most effective ad at a minimum cost. Here are two key points to remember about your ads:
1. If it's an item you're selling, remember to include as much information as possible. The more potential buyers know about the item you have for sale, the more interest they have in calling you.
2. Our reputation for Classified Advertising results is excellent. But not every potential buyer will read your ad on the same day. The majority of our private party advertisers take advantage of our discount rates. This simply means that you order your ad for two consecutive issues, but should you get the results you desire before the ad has expired, you may call and cancel the ad and be refunded for the days the ad did not appear. Except for GR -- no refunds or changes accepted.
