PET OF THE WEEK

Athena is a white Great Pyrenees mix.

Athena looking for a new home

Meet our beautiful girl named Athena! Athena is a white Great Pyrenees mix who is about 2 years old. She weighs 65 pounds and is a happy go lucky girl! Athena is available for adoption and is looking for a family to love her unconditionally! She loves to go out on walks and chase balls for you. Taking treats from you is another of her favorite things to do. Athena has done well when meeting other dogs and has passed her Safer dog evaluations.

Athena will need a strong handler when going out for walks. If you would like to meet Athena, please come out to the Shafter Animal Shelter. She would love to meet you!

If you have not already, please view our home page at shaftercritters.petfinder.com. Our web site will answer many questions that you may have about adopting from us. We cannot recommend any dog as "good with children," since there is no way to be certain that they are safe for children. The age of the animal is an estimation that has been based on the knowledge and training of the shelter staff. If you have further questions, e-mail animalcontrol@shafter.com or call 661-746-2140. E-mail is not checked on Sundays or holidays. The shelter is at 18849 S. Shafter Ave.

Evangelist coming to Southern Baptist

Perez was saved and is helping to save others.

Raul Perez gave Jesus his life, and He gave it back to him and he has been praising Him ever since.

Brings story of a street life saved

JAMIE STEWART
The Shafter Press

Salvation comes in many different ways and does not always happen at the altar or during a church service. With Raul Perez, it was in a prison cell. Perez was saved by the Lord and is now helping to save souls wherever he can, no matter the place. Perez will be coming to Shafter thanks to Pastor Jim Neal and the First Southern Baptist Church in Shafter. A large evangelistic event will take place at the church Friday, Saturday and Sunday March 1, 2 and 3. The church is located at 250 Kern Street in Shafter. The event will begin on Saturday, March 1, with a service at 7 p.m. The event will include a large block party starting at 3 p.m., with bounce houses for the kids, food, entertainment and other activities. It will then move to inside the church for a service at 6 p.m. The next day, Sunday's service will begin at 10:45 a.m. Pastor Jim Neal was sent a clip of Perez preaching and felt a burden on his heart to bring Perez to Shafter. "I think that he will help and touch our community, even the young kids who are in need of a message of hope," Neal said. Perez was raised in a broken home without a father, which led to bad choices and turning to the streets. Perez joined a gang very young and found love with similar minded individuals with the same type of background. Perez started using drugs before he hit his teens, landing him in the juvenile system for the majority of his youth. By his early teens, he was addicted to drugs. "I was addicted to anything I could get my hands on," said Perez. "But even in those years, God saw to it that many people I encountered told me about God and Jesus; but I just ignored them." He was then shot in the street and almost died. He remembered all those who had talked to him about His message and he called out to God for mercy. God answered his prayer, but after the crisis was over, Perez went back to his old ways down a path of destruction.

Perez was involved in drugs, alcohol and crime before surrendering his life to Christ.

Perez ended up with eight felonies, two of which were capital murder charges. It was only then, facing what he thought was going to be a lifetime behind bars, that those words resonated in his mind and in his soul. "I began to focus my attention on the realness and power of God. I began to seek Him to change my life," said Perez. About a year later, after having faithfully attending church services and being baptized, Perez received his own miracle. The State of Texas released him and set him free from prison. Unfortunately, being released with no family, friends or support around him, Perez eventually found his way back into the street life. Sometimes he would try to return to church, but, "Demons would tell me that I was a traitor and that God would never forgive me again after turning my back on Him." What followed was 14 long years of drugs, alcohol and crime. An angel in the form of a lady entered his life and gave him a tract and told him that Jesus was the only way to the truth and life that he was destined for. He then totally surrendered to Christ and has been free, sharing Christ with everyone he meets. He gave Jesus his life, and He gave it back to him and he has been praising Him ever since. Perez is looking forward to telling his story and giving His message to those who might need a change, or just an encouraging word that will touch their soul.

homes to the next level of service with new technology. Richard Woody studied mortuary science at Cypress College and completed the program with honors in 2004. While attending Cypress, he was awarded the C.K. Humanitarian award as well as the Harriet J. Davey award for excellence in embalming. Woody is a licensed funeral director, embalmer and funeral insurance professional. He also sits on the board for the California Funeral Directors Association and is the vice chairman of the Legislative Committee. Woody is very proud of the legacy that has been built by his grandparents, Clarence and Martha, as well as his parents, and is working to keep that wonderful tradition and reputation. "We have a new modern pricing structure in place that makes it easier and simpler to choose a plan or package, with a variety of options available," stated Woody. Peters Funeral Home is a full-service business that can accommodate different needs for a variety of religions, cultures and traditions. "We have beautiful chapels at all of our locations, with state of the art audio and visual equipment that will make your service a special one." They have also created a kitchen space for families who want to prepare or serve food or refreshments before or after services. Peters started a tradition years ago of holding an annual Holiday Remembrance Ceremony in which all of the families who have been served are invited to remember those loved ones and honor them during a special service held around Christmas time. "We love the communities that we serve and work very hard to keep those wonderful relationships that have been built over the years," he said. Although losing a loved one is always difficult. Woody says Peters Funeral Homes can be counted to help you honor their life in the best way possible with service that combines new technology and innovations with the honesty and integrity that generations of residents have come to count on. More information and resources can be found on their website, petersfuneralhomes.com, or by contacting one of their locations in Shafter, 661-746-6314, Wasco, 661-758-5144, and Arvin, 661-854-616.

Peters Funeral Home has been helping residents celebrate the lives of their loved ones for decades.

New bilingual program

demic development can benefit the student in more ways than just learning another language. It also allows the students to problem-solve in a different way, and it helps their cognitive skills for a lifetime. Unlike a traditional foreign language course, where students may learn a new language for only part of the day, students enrolled in an immersion program are quite literally immersed in their new language; a majority or all of their instruction will be in that language. A child won't just speak Spanish or English when building his or her new language skills, but will also learn about general topics, like fractions, the Civil War, in a second language. According to Carrillo, "Parents often choose immersion environments because continuous exposure to a new language, particularly before the age of 12, can help children quickly understand a new language, not unlike how they learned to speak English." Studies have shown that the gap has been closed in students who are involved in the dual immersion programs and have performed at the same level or higher than monolingual students. Parents who are interested and wish to learn more about the program may attend a Dual Language orientation meeting. The next session is Tuesday, Jan. 29 at 3 p.m. at the Parent Center, 300 North Valley St. More information is available from Carrillo at 661-746-8619.

Terrific Kids honored at Kiwanis luncheon

The Shafter Kiwanis Club honored some Terrific Kids at a recent luncheon. Each month, the principals and assistant principals nominate a student or students who exemplify the characteristic that is being observed for that month. This month the trait was “influential.”

Golden Oak Elementary School Principal Anamarie Mendez introduced Kaleb Abair. Kaleb, a sixth grader, is “an amazing student.” He not only befriends new students, but is also gifted and talented in his heart, she said

Redwood Elementary School Principal Luis Rodriguez honored Annaly Garza. Annaly is a third grader. She is “very articulate and has taken the lead in the school’s beautification project.”

Sequoia Elementary School Principal Frank Flores introduced Kiara Medina as Sequoia’s Terrific Kid. Kiara, a third grader, is “a fun-loving young lady.” She encourages other students to become active in the school.

Richland Junior High Principal Rosa Romero introduced Nataly Ramirez and Adan Vargas as the school’s Terrific Kids. Both Nataly and Adan are well-rounded students. Nataly is involved in band, oral language festivals and soccer. Adan is involved in basketball and is very polite when engaged in conversation, Romero said.

The TERRIFIC Kids program is a student recognition program that promotes character development, self-esteem and perseverance. “Terrific” is an acronym for thoughtful, enthusiastic, respectful, responsible, inclusive, friendly, inquisitive and capable.

Students work with their classroom teacher to establish goals to improve behavior, peer relationships, attendance and school work. Students who are nominated for achieving their goals are honored with a luncheon and are presented with certificates acknowledging their accomplishments.

and challenging occupation. You can make such a difference in not only a student’s life, but in the entire family’s life.”

Carrillo went on to teach higher grade levels at Richland Elementary, which is now Redwood Elementary. Joanne retired in 2017. Carrillo is now working as a consultant for the district.

Carrillo said that she was called to do research on starting a dual immersion program in Shafter. Carrillo did the leg work on the project and has been instrumental in getting the program started at Golden Oak Elementary, set to start in August.

“I think that this program will help not only English learners to improve and excel, but also English speakers who benefit from the program with the ability to function in the classroom and the workplace being bilingual,” Carrillo said.

Carrillo was surprised by the announcement of her receiving the award and is humbled and honored by the gesture. The awards banquet will begin at 5:30 p.m., with an hors d’oeuvre hour and dinner before the awards will be given out. There also will be a State of the City address by Mayor Gilbert Alvarado.

The Shafter Woman's Club recently judged elementary school student art at the Shafter Youth Center. The first place winners will be entered into the San Joaquin Valley District competition for further awards.

Besides judging art, members are also preparing for the Cans d'Arte in conjunction with the Colours Festival in Shafters. Then in March, Clubwomen art, crafts and photography will be judged.

The club also worked on a White Ribbon Campaign in conjunction with Martin Luther King's birthday. This program encourages males to pledge not to participate or tolerate violence against women

The Shafter Woman's Club is a member of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, one of the largest and oldest women's organizations. It was founded in 1890. They usually meet the first Wednesday of each month at 11:30 a.m. at the Shafter Police Department's Community Room.

The Shafter Woman's Club was organized in 1915 and is open to any person who is interested in working in the community.

PASTORS CORNER

Remember, only God knows how many apples are in a seed

JIM NEAL

First Southern Baptist Church

Anyone can know how many seeds are in an apple: Only God knows how many apples are in a seed.

"And let us not grow weary while doing good, for in due season we shall reap if we do not lose heart." --Galatians 6:9.

I remember reading the first quote many years ago, and it has for some reason been on my mind all week this week. I have no idea what instigated its rising up, but it is there. Perhaps it is because we have just finished one of the most sacred seasons, the Christmas time. Or perhaps it is because we have just begun yet another year, and many are seeking a fresh touch from our Lord to make this year count. For sure, the Lord Jesus was and is still the most magnificent seed ever planted in time and eternity. His death, burial and resurrection remains the centerpiece of all humanity. And for sure, only God knows how many believers will come from the planting of His life.

Let's think for a moment about that quote as it relates to your life and mine. A tiny seed such as an apple seed, when planted, nurtured and protected, will protect hundreds of thousands of apples over the life of the tree. As a lad picking apples in the rolling hills of Southern Illinois, I often thought there were thousands of apples on the tree I was assigned to pick -- but you catch my drift.

The time from the planting of the seed to the first harvest of said tree is well over five years. That is five years of hoeing weeds, fertilizing, pruning and the like before any measureable harvest is ever realized. The same can be said of a thought, an idea or of an investment. It often takes much time, sweat, tears and cultivation before we realize the fulfillment of a dream or a realization of an idea, placed within us by the Holy Spirit. (Proverbs 29:18)

A seed must fall in the ground and die to itself in order to germinate and produce new growth. So must we be willing to die to ourselves and be willing to struggle through the germination period of some new endeavor to be able to fully appreciate the rewards of victory. Therein lies the challenge for us all -- patience. In our microwave society we want results right now. Often we pray, "Lord, grant me patience, and give it to me right now!"

Would you want a doctor to operate on you after two years of schooling? Of course not. A doctor is one in whom the seed of victory is planted early, and it is years before he picks up the scalpel to perform his first surgery. The seasoned athlete who strokes a 45-foot home run or hits the winning bucket didn't do that the first time the seed was planted. No, it took years of practice and a willingness to die to self by giving up time at the malt shop or movie theater to hone his skills.

But there is a kicker about seeds. It isn't the size of the seed that counts, it is the faith of the one planting it that reaps the reward. Remember, Jesus said, "If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you can say to this mountain be removed and it will move." (Matthew 17:20) Now the mountains are fine where they are; He speaks to the mountains of fear, of indecision, ill health and the like those are the mountains that need moved. Agreed?

Jim Neal is pastor of First Southern Baptist Church in Shafter.

OBITUARIES

LeRoy Weidenbach
1931 - 2019

LeRoy Melvin Weidenbach was born Dec. 18, 1931 in Scotland, S.D., to Albert and Emilia Weidenbach. The Weidenbach family moved to Shafter in 1945, beginning the farming operations when LeRoy was 16. After graduating from Shafter High School, LeRoy served his country in the Army from 1952 to 1955.

In 1955, LeRoy joined his two older brothers, Layton and Marvin, on the family farm. He developed a passion and a calling for agriculture that lasted a lifetime. In 1956, he married the love of his life, Barbara Lamas. Together they raised three children, Gary, Alan and Janet. Following the passing of his brothers, LeRoy continued farming with his son Alan until he retired in 2002.

LeRoy loved Christ and had served faithfully in his church as a Sunday school teacher, unlocking and locking the church building and trimming the bushes. He loved spending time with his family and taking them out to dinner often. He anxiously awaited his new body and meeting his Lord and Savior. He went to his eternal home on Jan

10, 2019. He will be dearly missed.

LeRoy is survived by his wife, Barbara Weidenbach, and sister-in-law Ruth Weidenbach; by his children, Gary and Pamela Weidenbach, Alan and Carol Weidenbach, and Brett and Janet Nusz; his grandchildren, Joshua and Courtney Weidenbach, Jessica Weidenbach, Jordynn and Heather Nusz, Frank and Abby Briggs, and Brianne Briggs; and by his great-grandchildren; Logan and Jackson Weidenbach, and Amaya and Skylar Briggs.

Please send condolences to the family and sign the family's guestbook at PetersFuneralHomes.com.

EDITOR'S NOTE | Jamie Stewart

Beauty in the eye of the beholder

Well, the Colours Festival is almost upon us, and I am getting excited about going to the events. Every year, it seems it keeps getting better. I never realized how many talented people, we have in our communities until they had an avenue to display it, such as this event.

Everyone has different tastes in art, as with anything else, and this event has something for all tastes.

If you don't find a play to be very interesting, maybe you will be intrigued by the sculptures and paintings in the Art Gallery. Or, if you love music, the Coffee House Music session at the Brookside Deli is awesome. I like a lot of different kinds of art. I love looking at the paintings at the Gallery, the sculptures, especially when you can ask the artist what the pieces mean to them. It is interesting to talk to them and find out the story or thought behind the pieces.

I was thinking the other day how great it is that we live in a city where people have an outlet like this event to showcase their talents. It gives the artists some pleasure having other people look at their works, as it is a joy for the viewer to take in the beauty of the object. This also brought to mind how different we are as individuals when it comes to what we think beauty is.

One person who goes to the Gallery and sees a painting of a woman staring at a little girl playing might get a warm feeling, picturing the lady reminiscing about her own childhood as she watches the little girl.

Another person might look at the same painting and see pain in the lady's eyes, reflecting a lifetime of missed opportunities, wishing for a second chance to do things differently.

With me, I love movies, as does my wife. But, if you look at our movie collections, you can see how people can differ so much when it comes to the arts. My wife loves romantic comedies and dramas. Her collection has a lot of films that others would deem as "chick flicks." They have romantic leads who find each other against all odds, blah!, blah!, blah!. When we go to the movies, it is usually to watch a movie that both of us will enjoy. This can be a challenge sometimes. For one, it is getting more difficult to find a movie that is not either a blood bath, or a mind-numbing sequence of blasts and explosions.

Part of the challenge is that I love goofy comedies. Sit me in front of the television and I can watch Ace Ventura movies until the next morning. My all-time favorite movie is "Jaws." I don't know how many times I have watched it. I know every line of the film and even have watched the special editions that have scenes that never made it to the movie. My family cringes whenever they hear the thundering beat of the theme music coming from the family room. My wife thinks that these movies are just plain stupid. Well, she may be right. But, as they say, to each his own. As with people who enjoy different kinds of art, it is the same with almost anything in the world. That is why there are so many different kinds of food, art, movies, books, people ourselves.

This year, when the festival arrives, try stepping out of your comfort zone and go see a play, or go the gallery, or the silent movie. Maybe you can go watch the artistry which is the Shafter Symphony Orchestra perform. Whatever event you choose you go to, make sure to go in with an open mind, a receiving attitude and a blank canvas on your heart that can be filled with those wonderful works of art.

It often takes much time, sweat, tears and cultivation before we realize the fulfillment of a dream.

HOW TO ADVERTISE EFFECTIVELY AND ECONOMICALLY

Our sales representatives are pleased to help you compose the most effective ad at a minimum cost. Here are two key points to remember about your ads:

1. If it's an item you're selling, remember to include as much information as possible. The more potential buyers know about the item you have for sale, the more interest they have in calling you.
2. Our reputation for Classified Advertising results is excellent. But not every potential buyer will read your ad on the same day. The majority of our private party advertisers take advantage of our discount rates. This simply means that you order your ad for two consecutive issues, but should you get the results you desire before the ad has expired, you may call and cancel the ad and be refunded for the days the ad did not appear. Except for GR -- no refunds or changes accepted.

COPY ACCEPTANCE
The Shafter Press and Wasco Tribune reserves the right to revise, reclassify, edit, reject or cancel any ad at any time for any reason.

DEADLINES
For Private Party Advertisers to order, correct or cancel an ad, the deadline for The Shafter Press and Wasco Tribune is NOON FRIDAY.

GENERAL POLICY
1. Rates and deadlines subject to change without notice.
2. The Shafter Press and Wasco Tribune make every effort to avoid errors in advertisements. Each ad is carefully read back for approval. However, mistakes sometimes slip through. We ask that you check your ad carefully. If you should find an error, report it to the Classified Department right away by calling 661-292-5100 and asking for Classified. We regret that we cannot be responsible for more than one incorrect publication if you do not call the error to our attention. The Shafter Press and Wasco Tribune cannot be liable for an amount greater than the amount paid for such advertising.

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE Trustee Sale No. 130394-11 Loan No. 15-30150877 Title Order No. 18-217894 APN 201-432-10-00-3 TRA No. YOU ARE IN DEFAULT UNDER A DEED OF TRUST DATED 02/14/2003. UNLESS YOU TAKE ACTION TO PROTECT YOUR PROPERTY, IT MAY BE SOLD AT A PUBLIC SALE. IF YOU NEED AN EXPLANATION OF THE NATURE OF THE PROCEEDINGS AGAINST YOU, YOU SHOULD CONTACT A LAWYER. MORTGAGE LENDER SERVICES, INC. as the duly appointed Trustee WILL SELL AT PUBLIC AUCTION TO THE HIGHEST BIDDER FOR CASH (payable at time of sale in lawful money of the United States, by cash, a cashier's check drawn by a state or national bank, a check drawn by a state or federal credit union, or a check drawn by a state or federal savings and loan association, savings association, or savings bank specified in section 5102 of the Financial Code and authorized to do business in this state) all right, title and interest conveyed to and now held by it under said Deed of Trust, described as follows: Trustor(s): JOHNNY MENCHACA Deed of Trust: recorded on 02/14/2003 as Document No. 0203028770 of official records in the Office of the Recorder of KERN County, California, Date of Trustee's Sale: 02/06/2019 at 10:00AM Trustee's Sale Location: On the front steps of the City Hall South building at 1501 Truxtun Ave, Bakersfield, CA 93301 The property situated in said County, California describing the land therein: AS MORE FULLY DESCRIBED IN SAID DEED OF TRUST The property heretofore described is being sold "as is". The street address and other common designation, if any, of the real property described above is purported to be: 769 MOSCATO STREET, MCFARLAND, CA 93250. The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any inaccuracy of the street address and other common designation, if any, shown herein. Said sale will be made, but without covenant or warranty, expressed or implied, regarding title, possession, or encumbrances, to pay the remaining principal sum of the note(s) secured by said Deed of Trust, with interest thereon, as provided in said note(s), advances, if any, under the terms of the Deed of Trust, estimated fees, charges and expenses of the Trustee and of the trusts created by said Deed of Trust, to-wit: $111,529.73 (Estimated). Accrued interest and additional advances, if any, will increase this figure prior to sale. The Beneficiary may elect to bid less than the full credit bid. The beneficiary under said Deed of Trust heretofore executed and delivered to the undersigned a written Declaration of Default and Demand for Sale, and a written Notice of Default and Election to Sell. The undersigned caused said Notice of Default and Election to Sell to be recorded in the county where the real property is located and more than three months have elapsed since such recordation. If the Trustee is unable to convey title for any reason, the successful bidder's sole and exclusive remedy shall be the return of monies paid to the Trustee, and the successful bidder shall have no further recourse. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 916-939-0772 or visit this Internet Web site: www.nationwideposting.com, using the file number assigned to this case 130394-11. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. THE ESTIMATED OPENING BID AT THE TIME OF THE INITIAL SALE DATE WILL BE MAXIMUM DEBT PLUS FORECLOSURE FEES. THE ESTIMATED MARKET VALUE IS $190,000.00. Date: 01/07/2019 MORTGAGE LENDER SERVICES, INC. 11707 Fair Oaks Blvd., Ste 202 Fair Oaks, CA 95628 (916) 962-3453 Sale Information Line: 916-939-0772 or www.nationwideposting.com TARA CAMPBELL, ASSISTANT VICE PRESIDENT MORTGAGE LENDER SERVICES, INC. MAY BE A DEBT COLLECTOR ATTEMPTING TO COLLECT A DEBT. ANY INFORMATION OBTAINED WILL BE USED FOR THAT PURPOSE. NPP0346914 To: WASCO TRIBUNE 01/17/2019, 01/24/2019
