Shafter remembers its heroes

JAMIE STEWART
The Shafter Press

After a two-year hiatus due to the covid-19 pandemic, the Shafter Cemetery held its annual Memorial Day service, honoring those local heroes who served in our Armed Forces and have passed away.

The service was begun by Brian Smith, a Marine veteran, welcoming the crowd to the ceremony, followed by the invocation and the Pledge of Allegiance. Musician Gene Absher was on hand to play a couple of songs, one of which he wrote himself, after hearing stories of his father fighting at Iwo Jima.

The grounds were majestic, with small American flags stationed at all of the veterans' graves, with large flags lining the pathways, waving in the breeze. Smith told the story of how Memorial Day came to be.

Smith said that the first Memorial Day took place back in 1868, when Commander in Chief John A. Logan of the Grand Army of the Republic wanted to honor the Union soldiers who had died in the Civil War. The World Wars turned it into a day of remembrance for all members of the U.S. Military who died.

There were also poppies being handed out at the service. In 1918, inspired by a poem, YWCA worker Moina Michael attended a YWCA Overseas Conference wearing a silk poppy pinned to her coat. The

Local teacher walks across stage as graduate

JAMIE STEWART
The Shafter Press

Golden Oak second grade teacher Ashley Miriles had the opportunity to walk across the stage to collect her diploma from University of California Merced recently, with a little help from her class.

Miriles grew up in Shafter and attended Shafter schools throughout her childhood, up to and including graduating from Shafter High School. She always wanted to come back to her community once she graduated and give back to her hometown.

Miriles' graduation from UC Merced was postponed due to the COVID-19 pandemic, giving her a unique chance to celebrate her graduation with her students.

Miriles wore a beautiful dress that she had her second grade class decorate. They drew and colored different scenes, including animals, flowers, portraits of her, as well as plenty of "I Love You's." Richland Superintendent Rosa Romero said that this was such a happy occasion and one that she will cherish.

Romero said that she wanted to congratulate Mireles and applaud her ingenuity.

Camp Hamilton remembers fallen soldiers

JAMIE STEWART
The Shafter Press

Camp Hamilton, with its lush stand of trees among a desert of oilfields, held its annual Memorial Day Service on Monday, remembering all of the veterans who have served our country in all branches of the military.

Visitors gathered from all over Kern County to be a part of this tradition and ceremony. Camp Hamilton is a veterans memorial park that serves as a respite for veterans and their families. The grounds harbor a grove of trees that have been planted to memorialize Kern County soldiers, their friends and families able to visit the living memorials, including Shafter veterans, such as Noel Wilson, who was recently honored with a tree planted in his honor.

The Memorial Day celebration included several speakers and a tree ceremony, followed by a raffle and a barbecue. The day was a special one for many local people. Martin Gonzales, who has been going to the event for a few years, said that he would never miss it. "I will always remember the boys that we lost when I was in 'Nam. I still remember their names and hometowns, and still miss them today."

The sentiment was a common one on the day. The majority of the attendees had loved ones that served in the military, or have friends who were serving. Camp Hamilton has become a very popular destination for those in need of some inspiration.

The seed of the idea to create a veterans park was first planted in the 1970s, when another Marine and Vietnam combat veteran, Glenn Denton, bought the parcel of land sandwiched between oil fields and farms as an investment.

He had come to Bakersfield as a Marine recruiter, and would eventually make the city his home. But a promise to his comrades in the 1st Marine Division not to forget the 122 Marines killed during an eight-day battle in Vietnam's Khe Sanh Valley in the summer of '69 caused him to rethink his investment.

That parcel would eventually grow, develop and evolve to become Camp Hamilton: a playing field, park, shooting range and a memorial for veterans, a place where soldiers, sailors, airmen and Marines who served honorably are remembered.

memory was not acceptable in Denton's view. He wanted to find a way to honor his fellow Marines and support his future brothers and sisters in arms. Ultimately, he named the park after his brother in arms, Leonard Hamilton.

"It's kind of an oasis in the oil field," he said.

There are now more than 300 trees planted as living memorials to those who served. It's also a place of support for current and recent servicemen and women.

Juneteenth to celebrate freedom day

VERONICA JACUINDE
Wasco Tribune

Community leaders of Wasco will host their second annual Juneteenth event on Saturday, June 11, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at Barker Park.

Juneteenth is a holiday that takes place on June 19 to commemorate the emancipation of enslaved people in the US. The holiday was first celebrated in Texas, where on that date in 1865, in the aftermath of the Civil War, slaves were declared free under the terms of the 1862 Emancipation Proclamation.

Organizing the special day are community members made up of elementary school teachers from the district and church leaders from the three African American churches in town, including True Light Baptist Church, Apostolic Faith Temple Church and Macedonia Church.

One of the organizers is Marcus Ballard, a teacher at Palm Avenue Middle School and an assistant pastor at New Generation Church.

Ballard teaches 6th grade history and has a passion for it. He hopes to instill a love of history in his students and community, and this will be an occasion to do just that.

"I especially want our younger generations to learn about and not forget their history. All cultures in Wasco are connected. The foundation of this town started in agriculture, where all cultures worked in the fields together to help build Wasco. Now we see the fruit of that today."

Ballard said his team is organizing the event again to showcase the holiday, which was established locally last year. It is also a platform to honor the rich Black history of Wasco.

"Last year was amazing. Assemblymember [Rudy] Salas came and recognized our three churches and pastors. Vendors sold food and items pertaining to African American culture. The student choir provided entertainment. Poems were read. Speakers, including from local colleges, gave words of inspiration," said Ballard.

"These elements will be brought back for the community of Wasco to enjoy."

This year the focus is on promoting healthy lifestyles, and booths will be set up to share information on that theme. Dignity Health will be there with its team of advocates.

There also will be numerous schools and nonprofits on hand offering options for youth post-high school, such as Bakersfield College and CSU Bakersfield.

Another component will be a pop-up, where vendors will sell African American-themed art and original craft items, clothes and jewelry.

"This is a way to support our small businesses," Ballard said.

There will be live performances, guest speakers and gospel music.

An assortment of food will be sold, including barbecue, tri-tip, fried fish, tacos, burritos, ribs, desserts and drinks.

"We invite the community to stop by for an afternoon of fun, great music, food and culture. All are welcome no matter who you are," said Ballard. "It will be an opportunity for Wasco to shine in a gathering that will highlight all the positivity our town has to offer."

For more information or to join as a vendor, call Ballard at 805-636-8931.

Students move on to 1st grade

VERONICA JACUINDE
Wasco Tribune

It was a happy day of celebration at the John L. Prueitt Elementary School kindergarten graduation. Students, parents and staff enjoyed the ceremony that recognized the youth for their dedicated efforts to fulfill all of the requirements necessary to move on to the next grade level.

"It was a culmination of a lot of hard work. Today was nothing but joy," said Principal Rosalinda Chairez. Parents were proud of their young ones.

"I am very proud of her because she has accomplished a great deal at this school," said Antonio Ramirez of his daughter Karen. Lucero Paniagua said of daughter Sophia, "She makes me proud because she is a smart little girl and very independent. I think that is due in great part to her wonderful teachers."

The event included a performance by the kids, and there were lots of smiles on stage.

They sang a Frank Sinatra song that they modified to go along with the occasion, and the kids were ecstatic with their presentation.

"The students practiced all week long to learn their song and how to line up for the event. There was much preparation to make the event special," said counselor Ore Sanchez. "It was really cute."

There was lots of excitement and emotion.

"I am excited for her, and I am both happy and sad because my little girl is growing up. Even so, I am pleased that she is moving up to the next grade," said Lupita Melgoza of her daughter Maria.

Students accomplished many goals.

"My daughter has learned to love books and to read. She knows her numbers and the alphabet and can write her name. She also learned to socialize and interact with other kids," said Melgoza.

"We are excited for her to begin 1st grade. She has made significant progress that has prepared her for this," said Marco Martinez of his daughter Maddie.

Social worker Mayte Quintana Raya taught them behavior management, coping skills, relaxation techniques and the importance of attendance.

"This has helped the students learn the basic rules of schools, including major components of letters and sounds that will guide them through their future academic years," said Quintana Raya.

Students were overjoyed that their parents came to support them.

"I am so happy that my dad came," said Jaydn Torress.

"It was fun because my parents came,"

Jayden with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Torres.

said Marrisona Mancilla.

"I took time off from work to be here because it was important for me to show him how much I care. I want to be here for him at every moment like this," said Rafael Torres of his son Jaydn.

Parents recognized how kindergarten changed their kids.

"She transitioned from not wanting to go to school to looking forward to it every day. Her teachers were great and good people," Ramirez said.

"The highlight is that she has learned how to bring the best to her studies. Now she loves school," said Gladys Ordaz of her daughter, Jael Bordas?

Community coming together for VBS

JAMIE STEWART
The Shafter Press

Vacation Bible School season is just around the corner, with several churches gearing up for this special time of the year. But, with budgets tight, and attendance a challenge with so many different events, a community of churches in Shafter decided in the past couple of years to combine their efforts, giving them the opportunity to reach more kids while still giving them the fun that they have come to expect at VBS.

This is the fourth year for a Community VBS, which will be held this year June 20-24 at Shafter's Ford Theater. Kids entering the K-6th grade are welcome to join the event as they sing fun songs, do cool crafts, play some crazy games, enjoy snacks and learn about Jesus. Admission is free.

This year, the VBS theme is Zoomerang. It is a sanctity of life VBS in the land down under. At Zoomerang, according to Director Chris Starrh, the kids will marvel at the unforgettable wildlife, culture and beauty of Australia while exploring the wonder and value of life, from the lives of preborn babies to eternal life in the kingdom of God.

SHAFTER

During this pro-life VBS, kids will discover that life is valuable. From the tiniest to the oldest, each person is made in the image of God- wonderfully designed to know Him and to live for Him.

Starrh said that they use this event as an outreach to the community and its children in order to share the good news of Jesus, promising freedom from the slavery of sin and eternal life.

The committee is made up of members from various churches in Shafter contributing their own unique talents to the program. The Valley Bible Church provides the treasurer, registration and crafts, as well as lending their secretary. The New Hope Church provides the Bible teachers, kindergarten teachers and assembly director. The Southern Baptist Church provides games and outreach. Church of Christ provides the snacks.

Volunteers from these churches will act as crew leaders, guiding the kids to the various stations and encouraging them in the Lord. Starrh said that there are too many to name, but all of them are under the leader-

"Community VBS is a very special week for all of us who attend and volunteer, and we are so very thankful to the Lord for the resources He has given us to make this happen, Heppner said.

"So come on and join the gang and bring your boomerang and Zoomerang with us for a fun-filled week as we learn how are all precious in God's eyes."

This was the main message that Rev. Randy Miller, from the First Southern Baptist Church, gave for the good crowd that attended the ceremony. Miller said, "One thing that I remember most of all at the many veterans' services that I have been a part of is when the American flag is folded at the end of the ceremony. It is folded in such a way that it cannot come undone. It is then given to the family of the fallen soldier. This symbol of our freedom and their sacrifice that can never be undone." He said that the soldier then, while handing the flag to the family, "On behalf of the President of the United States, we thank you for your brave and selfless service."

Planet Dance Studio specializes in the art of jazz, hip-hop, ballet, tap and competitive dancing and is open to youth ages 4-18.

The studio was first opened in 2002 and will celebrate its 20th anniversary this year. To honor that, the studio is planning a Summer Gala tribute to the beloved singer Selena on Saturday, June 18, from 10 a.m. to noon. It will take place at the Shafter High School Auditorium.

"We expect the turnout will be great, with 700 -900 people joining in on the celebration," said studio director Jacob Hernandez.

The dancers have been practicing diligently since April in preparation.

"They are passionate about dancing, and this is a way to showcase their talent and all of the hard work they have been putting in to make sure their presentation is a success and that guests will enjoy themselves," Hernandez said.

"The theme of Selena came to me last summer, and I thought it would make for a special show. Who doesn't love Selena?"

There will be 70 students performing 17 different numbers.

"We are excited to share our first performance of the year with the community, highlighting all of the efforts made by our staff and the dancers. It will be particularly memorable for our first-year members," said Hernandez.

The Planet Dance Studio team, in addition to Hernandez, is composed of a staff of five experienced and passionate teachers.

"We have over 100 years combined of expertise," said Hernandez.

The dancers have participated in many national and statewide competitions throughout the years, taking home top prizes.

They recently participated in the Star Power competition in San Diego and were acknowledged for their superior skills.

The team scored high enough to once again qualify for the nationals, and will be attending this event June 19-24 in Las Vegas.

"There will be almost 30 different national teams that they will be competing against, and I am anticipating we will do well," said Hernandez.

Local boy comes back to his root

JAMIE STEWART
The Shafter Press

A local man who graduated from Shafter High School has returned to town and is operating the newest barber shop here. Phatboyz Barber Shop.

Edgar Gonzalez has been operating his own barber shop since 2006, with a shop in Wasco with the same name, giving Gonzalez a growing clientele. Gonzalez's clients followed him to Shafter after the move, along with with a new group of customers.

Gonzalez said that he started cutting hair when he was 13 years old. "Every summer, we would shave our heads, so I got nominated to do the honors. A Kmart pair of clippers, and I was good to go," he said.

Gonzalez is known for his willingness to give a customer any type of cut that they want. "A lot of kids will bring in a picture and say, 'I want that,'" which Gonzalez does. "If I can see it, I can do it," said Gonzales.

Gonzalez graduated from Shafter High in 2002 and went to work for a roofing company. He was injured on the job and had to sit out of work and was put on disability for a time. With that time and assistance, Gonzales decided to make that childhood talent a career and went to Barber College. He said that he actually had decided to attend the school while he was still working, it just would have taken longer, with going to class and working around a job schedule.

After getting his license, he went to work for Tony's Barber Shop in Bakersfield, but found that he was actually cutting more hair from home, with a growing number of friends and acquaintances that were wanting him to do their cuts.

Gonzalez opened Phatboyz in Wasco in 2006, with an already steady flow of customers. The list grew as word spread, with customers making appointments or trying their luck as a walk-in.

Today, Gonzalez said that he does do walk-ins if he is not booked, but is usually booked two to three weeks in advance.

"I decided to come back to my roots here in Shafter," said Gonzalez, who, together with his wife, are raising their four daughters. The shop is cool, clean, modern, but the service is all old school. "I am a traditional barber, the cut, the shave, good service," said Gonzalez.

Gonzales cuts a variety of styles at the shop.

"It is exciting to see clients jumping off the chair with a smile," said Garcia.

Lady Tigers runner-up in Valley Championships

JAMIE STEWART
Wasco Tribune

The Wasco Lady Tigers softball team ended an outstanding season with a runner-up finish in the Division III Valley Championships, dropping the championship game to Monache High School, 2-0.

Wasco came into the final contest riding a 2-game winning streak, going undefeated in the South Sequoia League. The Lady Tigers began the Valley tournament with a 5-4 victory over Kerman, the 15th seed, with Wasco the No. 2 seed. The Lady Tigers followed that win with another nail-biter against seventh-seeded Tulare Union, winning that game by the same 5-4 score. Both games were won on Wasco's last at bats.

In the semifinal game, the Lady Tigers went up against former SSL foes the Garces Rams. With the game scoreless, the Lady Tigers got a hit by sophomore Gabriella Milligan, bringing in Tiffany Mello for the only run of the game to earn a spot in the final at Fresno State.

The Lady Tigers just couldn't get any offense going in the final, not getting that much-needed spark that they had generated in the previous games.

But, the future of Wasco High softball looks very bright, with the majority of the team underclassmen. Freshman pitcher Cedes Saldana, who pitched a complete-game shutout of Garces in the semifinal, giving up only three hits, is just one of many underclassmen that the Lady Tigers have on the roster.

Wasco High Coach Sonia Wedel said that this youth was actually a strength when it came to playoff time, with it shielding the Lady Tigers from getting nervous in big games, like the semifinal win over Garces. "I was stressed over that game for a week," said Wedel, about the Garces game.

PASTORS CORNER

The God of All Comfort

PASTOR JIM GLASCO

Seventh Standard Pentecostal Church

2nd Corinthians 1:3-4 says: Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and the God of all comfort; who comforts us in our tribulations, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort where we ourselves are comforted of God.

God is our strength and comfort. If a people and a nation ever needed God's comfort, it is I now. Our nation is in mourning as we pray and weep with the families in Uvalde, Texas.

Jesus said Come unto me, all you that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Psalm 42:5 tells us to hope in God.

The Lord once said he would comfort us as a mother comforts. Jesus said "blessed are they that mourn, for they shall be comforted." John 14:16 says, "I will give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you forever." Thank God for the Holy Spirit, who embraces us with his comforting presence.

One of the teachers who died in that tragedy was found holding one of her young students. Many people interviewed said it was tragic and senseless what happened. All we can do at times of hurt and pain is hold onto God. The Lord is close to them who are brokenhearted. He is a very present help in time of trouble.

The Lord's comforting presence will see you through anything. Thirty-six years ago my wife and I felt that comforting presence as we lost a young son in a tragic automobile accident in Oklahoma. My grandparent's pastor met us for the first time and he put his arms around us and cried with us. He said I have never faced what you and your wife are going through right now; all I can say is trust God's word. People we never had met called and said we are praying for you. They shared our hurt and pain. Jesus bore our griefs and carried our sorrows.

All kinds of political opinions are going forth right now, but what the loved ones in Uvalde, Texas, need is God's comfort. The Lord is the God of all comfort.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

Notice is hereby given that the Planning Commission of the City of Wasco will hold a public hearing pursuant to WMC 17.52.020(F) to consider revocation or modification of the Conditional Use Permit for the project described below in this notice. The public hearing will be held on June 13, 2022, at 6:00 P.M. or as soon as possible thereafter in the Council Chambers located at 746 8th Street, Wasco, California.

Project Title: Conditional Use Permit 20-01
Project Description: The project is a Conditional Use Permit approved by the City of Wasco Planning Commission on October 12, 2020, for a wastewater processing facility on a 7-acre parcel within an existing 33,000 square foot industrial building. The wastewater treatment facility was designed to treat industrial, non-hazardous wastewater, which is brought to the facility by truck transportation. Process equipment was installed in an existing industrial building and was designed to process between 100,000 to 700,000 gallons per day (GPD) of wastewater. Wastewater received at the facility is from oilfield operations, including Produced Water and Flow Back Water. The wastewater to be treated will have the following primary constituents:

- Petroleum oil,
- BOD materials,
- Metals, and
- Suspended solids

Wastewater being received at the site is either off-loaded directly into the processing facility or held in portable tanks on the property, to be subsequently piped into the processing facility. All processing equipment and process steps will be within the building. Water is treated in a multi-stage treatment process and then pumped into holding tanks. A Blue Water Resource operator manually initiates the operation of the transfer pumps to move Treated water from the product storage tanks to be automatically pumped to tankers that will haul water off the site.

The facility was proposed to operate 7 days a week with 24-hour workdays. The facility will have 15 full-time employees who will work in shifts. There will be 40-75 tanker truck trips and 10-12 water truck trips to the property per day. The primary objective of the treatment process is to cleanse the water so that it can be sold back to the oil field service companies and re-used in oil extraction operations. Other uses for the treated water include distribution to environmental firms, water resource companies, and other small independent oil and gas producers merchant facilities.

General Godbehere wins medal at State Meet

JAMIE STEWART
The Shafter Press

Nick Godbehere of the Shafter High track and field team threw his way to a seventh place finish in the discus throw at the CIF State Track and Field Meet held at Clovis Buchannon High School on Saturday.

Godbehere also captured 11th place in the shot put competition. Godbehere, who came into the meet ranked in the top 10 throwers in the state, led the field of 12 qualifiers after the first round in the finals with a throw of 189-feet-2. He had qualified on Friday in fourth place in both disciplines, but could not match the performances in the final rounds.

After leading after one round, the wind picked up and Godbehere couldn't get a legal throw in his next three attempts, fouling on each throw. Godbehere was happy with his first throw, but said that he couldn't get the wind to carry his throws.

"I think the first throw was a good one, and I was excited about it, knowing I could build on it, but later in the finals, the wind picked up and my throws just weren't getting picked up by the wind like the other guys' were."

He said that his technique was a little off, either over-rotating because he was trying to generate a bunch of speed and power, or he couldn't get the load off of his left and drive it. "So it was just real close technical errors."

Godbehere, who has committed to throw for the University of California at Berkeley next year, said,"Even though the outcome wasn't what I was hoping for, being seventh in the state is still pretty cool."

Godbehere later placed 11th in the shot put, his best mark being 51-feet-9, well short of his personal record in the event, which was over 61 feet.

He was planning on competing in the NSAF Nationals in Eugene, Oregon, in three weeks, but his plans haven't been finalized yet. Godbehere joins a large group of throwers from Shafter who have graced the State Meet stage.

On Friday, in qualifying, senior Devon Sundgren ran a 10.64 in the 100 meter dash, placing him at 13th, just missing the finals round.

Godbehere won a seventh-place medal with this throw of over 189 feet.

HOW TO ADVERTISE EFFECTIVELY AND ECONOMICALLY

Our sales representatives are pleased to help you compose the most effective ad at a minimum cost. Here are two key points to remember about your ads:

1. If it's an item you're selling, remember to include as much information as possible. The more potential buyers know about the item you have for sale, the more interest they have in calling you.
2. Our reputation for Classified Advertising results is excellent. But not every potential buyer will read your ad on the same day. The majority of our private party advertisers take advantage of our discount rates. This simply means that you order your ad for two consecutive issues, but should you get the results you desire before the ad has expired, you may call and cancel the ad and be refunded for the days the ad did not appear. Except for GR - no refunds or changes accepted.

GENERAL POLICY

1. Rates and deadlines subject to change without notice.
2. The Shafter Press and Wasco Tribune make every effort to avoid errors in advertisements. Each ad is carefully read back for approval. However, mistakes sometimes slip through. We ask that you check your ad carefully. If you should find an error, report it to the Classified Department right away by calling 661-292-5100 and asking for Classified. We regret that we cannot be responsible for more than one incorrect publication if you do not call the error to our attention. The Shafter Press and Wasco Tribune cannot be liable for an amount greater than the amount paid for such advertising.

NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 619-846-7649 for information regarding the trustee's sale or visit this internet website http://www.qualityloan.com, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-22-898863-SH. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the internet website. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call 619-846-7649, or visit this internet website http://www.qualityloan.com, using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-22-898863-SH to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the property address or other common designation, if any, shown herein. If no street address or other common designation is shown, directions to the location of the property may be obtained by sending a written request to the beneficiary within 10 days of the date of first publication of this Notice of Sale. If the sale is set aside for any reason, including if the Trustee is unable to convey title, the Purchaser at the sale shall be entitled only to a return of the monies paid to the Trustee. This shall be the Purchaser's sole and exclusive remedy. The purchaser shall have no further recourse against the Trustor, the Trustee, the Beneficiary, the Beneficiary's Agent, or the Beneficiary's Attorney. If you have previously been discharged through bankruptcy, you may have been released of personal liability for this loan in which case this letter is intended to exercise the note holders right's against the real property only. It was a special day for 336 students at the Wasco Union High School graduation ceremony. The event was filled with pride, emotion and lots of happy faces for the accomplishments of the graduates.

"Today, we celebrate the Class of 2022, who faced obstacles but endured the challenges," said WUHS Principal Sunni Dobbs.

In the face of covid, the students' lives were disrupted by on-line learning.

"With the pandemic, we experienced stumbling blocks, but we pulled through it," said Jimena Acosta.

"I didn't think I would make it, but I applied myself. Now I am going to Bakersfield College to major in animal science to be an ag teacher."

Leadership commented on returning to some normalcy.

"The ceremony captured the great spirit that everyone had together in a normal ceremony after three years," said WUHS District Superintendent Robert Cobb.

It was a team effort.

"The entire staff worked tirelessly for the students to be prepared for tonight," said Cobb.

Parents played a big role in the success of their children.

"I want to especially thank my mom for helping me realize this dream and for giving me the motivation to finish," said Angel Garcia.

Family was proud of and excited for the students.

Maria Gutierrez said she worked really hard.

Wasco Independence High School graduation ceremony honored their Class of 2022 with moving speeches and messages of inspiration. Many students struggled academically and personally, but they overcame those challenges to earn their high school diplomas.

"We had 125 graduates from both our continuation and adult education programs. We've never had that many students graduate," said counselor Vianney Gonzalez.

"Even with all of the hardships our students had to face, they were able to complete their diploma requirements. It proves how tight-knit our staff is to ensure that every student gets a second chance to succeed."

Students put in the extra effort to graduate.

"I worked really hard because I was behind in credits, but I could catch up because of WIHS. I feel like they saved me with an opportunity to graduate on time," said Joseph Gamboa.

"I feel wonderful and so happy I was able to come all this way with my baby. I wasn't in school for the last three years, and though I graduated a year late, I still made it," said Kimberly Salazar.

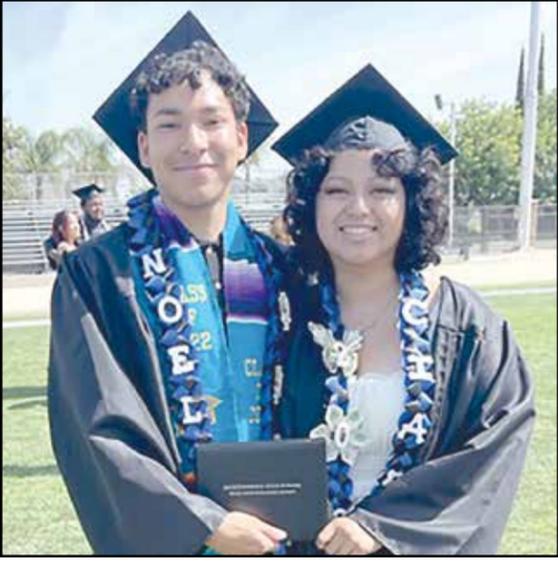

"It's amazing. I feel a big weight lifted off my shoulders. It was difficult to complete 120 credits in just one school year, but I put my heart into it to make it happen. I am excited to see where my future goes from here," said Ava Calhoun.

Some students did not think they would make it, but family and friends were there to support them.

"I pushed them when they wanted to give up. They've been through a lot with both of their parents on drugs, but I stepped in to raise them. It is awesome, and I couldn't be more proud," said Danita Jones of her granddaughter and grandson.

"I overcame not believing in myself to taking a big step in life by graduating."

Noel Angel Abugan and Ciara Celise Garcia were both student presenters and gave inspirational words of advice to the graduates.

"Today was a huge success for the students because they realized all their hard work was worth it," said teacher Michael Rowland.

"I am incredibly excited for these kids and a little emotional. I am going to miss them. They accomplished a great deal in the face of adversity. It was special to see how proud all of their friends and families were to see them graduate," said teacher Kayla Castillo.

It was historic for WIHS.

Oscar Rivas said he enjoyed spending his special day with family and friends. BELOW: Counselor Vianney Gonzalez, with Leadership President Arturo Perez, said he exemplified all of the qualities WIHS instills in students like respect, honesty and helpfulness.

The graduates are ready for their next steps. "It makes me ecstatic to see that they made it, and WIHS has prepared them for the next chapter in their lives. We have instilled values such as respect, not only for others, but for themselves," said Gonzalez.

"Whatever they choose to do with their lives, they'll know that it will be a good path for them if they respect themselves."
