The Kern County Sheriff's Office lost one of their own Sunday after a standoff left five people dead.

Deputy Philip Campas, 35, was killed when a suspect opened fire during an incident on 1st Street in Wasco. The sheriff's office also reported the suspect, Jose Manuel Ramirez Jr., 41, and his family; Viviana Ruiz Ramirez, 42, son Jose Manuel Ramirez III, 24, and son Angel Manuel Ramirez, 17, died.

Sheriff Donny Youngblood held a press conference at the Sheriff's Office Headquarters on Monday morning, to update the public on the investigation.

The SWAT team responded to the home on 1st Street at approximately 3 p.m. Sunday.

"We received reports and 911 calls indicating that there were people shot inside of the house, and we believed that there was a possibility that there were still subjects in the house who were alive," said Youngblood. "This is why we opted to approach the house and attempt to enter the residence."

During the attempt, Campas was shot. He underwent emergency medical assistance at the scene, but was declared dead.

Campas, 35, was a five-year veteran of the sheriff's office. Before that, Campas had served as a Marine, stationed in the Campas was a member of the SWAT team, as well as the Honor Guard and serv-

Community mourns loss of Danny Rueda

TONI DEROSA
Wasco Tribune

Former VFW Post 6742 Commander and Wasco Union Elementary School District board member Danny Rueda has died.

Danny had recently been sick and hospitalized.

Danny was born in Wasco and attended city schools. His wife, Petra, also attended local schools and the two were passionate about the community. Danny would go on to be a bus driver for the school district. Danny also volunteered at the Knights of Columbus, Elks, and was on the advisory committee of the Wasco State Prison Board.

Danny served in the U.S. Army from 1983 to 1986 where he was an E4. He retired in 2005 from driving buses and later became commander of VFW post 6742 in 2018-19 before turning command over to James Medrano then Camilo Vasquez.

Madrano said he will remember the joy Danny brought to VFW activities and events.

Danny was a longtime board member for the WUESD and Superintendent Kelly Richers said that he has known Danny for 28 years.

"I cannot remember when we met first, but he has been supportive of the district ever since I knew him," Richers said. "He truly epitomized service to the community. Danny was a board member for at least 10 years."

City Council member Tilo Cortez said there is so much to say about Danny that there is no way he could express how much he meant to Wasco.

Cortez said he was known as "Danny, the bus driver," which he enjoyed doing for many years. He said Danny was the catalyst for many community development events that are held in Wasco such as the pancake breakfasts, feeding the homeless, car shows and fundraising for Ronald McDonald House.

"Danny will be missed but his legacy will live on," Cortez said. "Simply said, Danny didn't wait for 'someone to do something,' he was

Residents walk to show support of sheriff's office

Council member Vince Martinez gathered residents to walk around Westside Park to show support for the Kern County Sheriff's Office.

Martinez thought about how he could bring the Wasco community together after the standoff on Sunday, July 25 and created a statement on Facebook asking whoever wanted to join him for a walk or run around Westside Park to join him at 6 p.m. Monday evening.

"I was overwhelmed by the support from the city and how quickly the city rallied around those in need," Martinez said. "I felt it was important to show the sheriff's office that we stand with them."

Residents showed up ranging in ages from senior citizens to parents with strollers. The walkers and runners went around Westside Park as many times as they wanted. People walked alone and many walked with their children while everyone was able to feel a part of the big group that gathered at the park.

It was a good time to reflect on Wasco as a community coming together in a time of crisis.

Suspect shot, 5 killed after standoff

Examiner's Office.

The suspect also shot another deputy, Dizander Guerrero, who was treated and later released from a local hospital. There were also two other deputies that were hit by shrapnel, but who remained on scene.

At approximately 6:28 p.m., deputies were able to shoot the suspect — Jose Manuel Ramirez Jr. — when he went on the roof of the house.

Youngblood said the suspect was treated at the scene but was declared deceased.

"When we entered the residence, we found three deceased people in the house," Youngblood said. Those people were later identified as Ramirez's family; wife Viviana Ruiz Ramirez, 42, son Jose Manuel Ramirez III, 24, and son Angel Manuel Ramirez, 17.

Youngblood said there were two females, and two young girls who were able to escape the residence.

"The investigation is still fluid and we are doing everything by procedures, and are being very cautious," said Youngblood.

Youngblood said that Campas was a hero who touched so many lives in his short five years on the force.

"We were talking and we thought that he had been with us for 10 years, but it had only been five. This is the impact that he had made on all of us in the short time that he was with us," said Youngblood.

A vigil was held for the victims on Tuesday evening at a park near the Kern County Sheriff's Office Wasco Substation.

This house on First Street was the scene of the deadly standoff.

Shafter Business Development Director Bob Meadows said the 1 million-square-foot facility is another example of big name companies finding a home in Shafter. Meadows said that the city has so much to offer companies, including a great central location, rail access, one of the only fiber optic networks in the county, and an administration that works to make a partnership with the city an easy and positive one.

Amazon has pledged to invest more than $700 million to provide upskilling training for 100,000 U.S. employees for in-demand jobs. Programs will help Amazon employees from all backgrounds access training to move into highly skilled roles across the company's corporate offices, tech hubs, fulfillment centers, retail stores and transportation network or pursue career paths outside of Amazon.

Current positions can be found by going to amazon.com/jobs. Additional positions will become available later this year.

Wasco High football begins fall season prep

TONI DEROSA

Wasco Tribune

Wasco High football is preparing for a busy season as over 100 players signed up for the three teams including varsity, junior varsity and freshmen.

Varsity Football Coach Chad Martinez said he is excited about having a full season with a "talented" senior class.

"Football is going well," Martinez said. "We currently have over 100 players in the program, all of which are excited for the fall season."

He said that he is still working on numbers and positions as all are being evaluated.

"Today will be our first day in helmets," he said earlier this week.

Quarterback Jacob Ruiz is one of the senior leaders. Martinez said Jacob started last year and will lead the team.

"We will be expanding his role on offense and letting him become the playmaker he is," Martinez said.

Martinez also recognized Linebacker Brayan Ruiz.

"Linebacker Brayan Ruiz is a hard-working, hard-hitting player," Martinez said.

He said Brayan is entering his second season as a team captain and will be a major component of the success at Wasco High School.

Martinez also said that athlete Sean Sharp will play multiple positions.

"When he touches the ball, he will make plays in the open field," he said.

Martinez added that Running Back Omar Tovar is hard-nosed and an intelligent running back.

"He will carry the ball a ton of times in true Wasco fashion," Martinez said.

Man found guilty in Shafter rape and robbery

JAMIE STEWART
The Shafter Press

A man faces multiple life sentences after being found guilty in a 2019 rape and robbery in Shafter.

William Jack Hopkins, 46, was convicted of kidnapping to commit rape, forcible rape, assault with the intent to commit sodomy, two counts of robbery, two counts of criminal threats, and felon in possession of a firearm.

On June 14, 2019, as reported in the Shafter Press at the time, Hopkins assaulted and kidnapped a woman after finding her and a man asleep inside of a vehicle in Shafter. Hopkins, wearing a bandana over his face, produced a gun and demanded money from the two people. The two gave him a few hundred dollars.

Hopkins then forced the man into the trunk of the vehicle. After the man used the escape latch to escape from the vehicle, Hopkins threatened to kill both of them if he didn't return to the trunk. The man returned to the trunk until he heard Hopkins leave with the female victim, police reported.

Hopkins took the woman several miles through orchards and up a canal road, eventually stopping. He then tied her hands behind her back, forcibly raping her. He also attempted to sodomize her. After raping her, he drove the woman to another orchard in Shafter and released her after telling her that he knew where her family lived and that he would skin her if she talked to anyone, police reported.

The woman was located by a citizen who was out for a morning run. Police said Hopkins was linked to rape by DNA evidence.

Hours before the incident, Hopkins was seen breaking into a vehicle in the parking lot of Peters Funeral Home in Shafter. Two men had confronted Hopkins about the break-in and Hopkins managed to flee the area, but not before leaving a couple of fingerprints that ultimately connected him to the crime, police reported.

According to Shafter Police Chief Kevin Zimmermann, Hopkins was located in Lake Isabella, and apprehended there.

Hopkins faces multiple life sentences as a result of the convictions. Sentencing is set for Sept. 8.

William Jack Hopkins will be sentenced in September.

Community mourns loss of Danny Rueda

Martinez said. "For years, Danny was a voice of reason in our city. I not only lost a mentor but a friend."

Orange Heart Foundation member Orquidea Ocampo said she got to know Danny through all the community events they organized.

"Danny will be an example of what a selfless true leader is," Ocampo said. "He loved giving back to the community and other communities, too."

Both Danny and Petra Rueda were immensely pleased at the Grand Marshal honor in 2019 and it gave the community a good idea just who these two were and how active they have always been in the community.

"We were originally called by Orquidea Ocampo to talk about the festival," Petra said. "I thought we were going to discuss the car show that the VFW puts on during the event; however, when we got to Starbucks, we were shocked when a group of people shouted out 'SURPRISE!' and Chair of the Festival Committee Kayla Castillo announced why we were really meeting at Starbucks that afternoon."

The Ruedas were also a host family for the Wasco Reserve baseball team. Danny was known for offering the VFW hall to any player that didn't have a host family.

Former coach of the Wasco Reserve Bill Moore has special memories of Danny from his first year coaching the Reserve in 2019.

"It was a huge effort to find housing for the players that first year in Wasco," Moore said. "He opened up the Veterans Hall and let about eight or nine players bunk in the hall. He ordered the team members to clean it up every night."

Petra remembered hosting for the Reserve players fondly.

"One of our boys, player Alex Hernandez, gave me his signed bat when he left to return to Arizona," Petra said. "I was so moved, I still get a lump in my throat when I talk about it."

Lori Ybarra-Hernandez, mother of Hernandez, became good friends with the Rueda family.

"They say friends become family. No truer words when it came to Danny Rueda," said Ybarra-Hernandez. "My husband and I were blessed to meet Danny on a trip to Wasco to watch our son play baseball with the Reserve."

Ybarra-Hernandez said the more they talked, the more they discovered the type of person Danny was who gave himself unselfishly.

"He gave all he had within himself that a person with a giving heart made of gold could," said Ybarra-Hernandez. "We were very fortunate to know and have Danny Rueda a part of our lives, he will truly be missed."

Orange Heart Foundation member Orquidea Ocampo along with Festival Committee member Kayla Castillo introduce Grand Marshals Petra and Danny Rueda to the community in 2019 at Starbucks.

Former Wasco Tribune Editor Jamie Stewart was covering a flag retiring ceremony, which was one of his first stories for the Tribune.

"You could see the respect and love and reverence in his face as he looked at the flag being put on the fire," Stewart said. "That was Danny for me, a great man who was respectful, giving and always had a smile on his face, even if he wasn't feeling well."

Richard Reding, who first knew Danny as a student, said that one of Danny's favorite treats was his wife Sarah's corn sticks. Reding said if he or Sarah wanted to find out anything that was going on, they would call Danny. He knew everything in town.

"I always joked with Danny that he was related to just about everyone in town," Reding said.

Danny leaves behind two children, Jose Rueda, 29, of Florida, and Victoria Rueda, 24, along with a grandson Jaxson Rueda.

The Rueda family cheers on their 49ers.

Billy Ray Smothers
April 9, 1929 –
July 24, 2021

Billy Ray Smothers, 92, passed away July 24, 2021, in Wasco.

Billy was born in Arkadelphia, Arkansas on April 9, 1929, to Neva and Ralph Smothers. At age 5, he and his family relocated to Wasco where he proceeded to raise cane for the next 87 years.

During World War II, at the age of 17, he thought it would be a good idea to join and serve in the U.S. Navy. Due to his age, the Navy required a signed release (permission) from his mother. Shortly after joining and arriving in Pearl Harbor he asked his mom to again try to sign him out of the Navy. Billy proudly served as a storekeeper at the Naval base Pearl Harbor until 1947. After being honorably discharged from the Navy, Billy returned back home to Wasco where he met the love of his life, Bonnie, and managed to hoodwink her into marrying him. She fell in love with his charming personality and awesome dancing and roller-skating skills. Together he and Bonnie had 3 children, Terri, Gene and Brad.

On June 3, 1948 - Billy went to work for PG&E. If you were around C Street you might have seen him running out to his work truck in his pajamas to protect it from catching fire after the kids in the neighborhood threw fireworks under it. He spent 36 years with the company before he retired in 1984.

Billy enjoyed riding his motorcycle until he hit a cow on a windy road and decided maybe his motorcycle riding days were over, he loved flying his plane, hunting and fishing, helping cook for charities and events, serving as a volunteer firefighter for the Wasco Fire department, and was a semiprofessional napper. His greatest passion in life was attending his great grandchildren's events and sports games. He loved to coach the games from the stands and made sure to yell loudly to the coaches his opinions on their coaching skills (he especially loved to give the Wedel Boys a hard time).

Billy is survived by his son, Brad Smothers; his granddaughter, Valerie and husband Brent Paul; his granddaughter, Michelle Conley; his granddaughter, Sharee and husband Elvis Barber; his great-grandchildren, Andrew and fiancée Haley, Randy, Marissa and fiancée Cody, Chandler Ray, Gaige, Daniel, Abby, Aiden; and great-great-grandson, Hunter Ray.

Billy was preceded in death 5 months ago by his wife of 68 years, Bonnie Smothers (sorry Granny we tried to give you a break); his son, Gene Smothers; and daughter, Terri Hassett; his mother, Neva Jones Sexton; his stepfather, Harvey Sexton; and his sisters, Ruth and Mary.

A handful of games gives Reserves playoff hope

LAMONT GRIDIRON
For the Wasco Tribune

It's the most exciting part of the baseball season for fans and players alike.

It's the part of the season demanding urgency to collect wins in the standings.

This is the part of the season where there are a handful of games left and teams are vying for a playoff spot to qualify for the postseason.

And that's where the 9-24 Wasco Reserve are, in the midst of the independent Pecos League Pacific Division pennant race.

The Reserve are chasing the Monterey Amberjacks (13-22) and Santa Cruz Seaweed (13-22) to clinch a 4th place finish for the final playoff spot and a post-season birth versus the division-leading Bakersfield Train Robbers.

Bakersfield can either clinch the top spot with a win or a San Rafael loss.

"As long as we take pitch by pitch, we'll be fine," said player and first year Manager Nic Ray, who is hoping his team will qualify for the playoffs with six games remaining in the season.

According to pitcher and outfielder Ryan "Ziggy" Osborne, the keys to making it to the postseason start defensively by limiting walks and hitting the baseball in the right situation with base hits with runners in scoring position.

"I expect us [Wasco] to take fourth place by the end of the season," he said.

Monterey has a two-game lead over the Reserve. The Reserve will meet the Amberjacks one final time in the last game of the regular season, Monday, Aug. 2 at home.

Wasco played second-place Martinez July 27-28.

Mathematically, Wasco's best chance to qualify for playoff contention would be to surpass Monterey and hope the Amberjacks lose games in the standings.

Monterey has four games remaining on the schedule, including a matchup against the Reserve this Monday, Aug. 1.

"We have to go out and give 100% and execute," Ray said.

Nic Ray winds up in the first inning versus Bakersfield Thursday night.

There will be eight teams that will qualify for the league's post season quarter finals.

The top four teams will represent the Pacific Division. The four other top teams will represent the Mountain Division.

The team with the best record in each division will play the No. 4 team in the quarter finals. The No. 2 team will face the No. 3 team to round out the quarter finals in a best-of-three series.

The second round of action, the conference finals, will feature division matchups of the two winners.

The winners of each division will compete in the Pecos League championship

The Reserve have one victory in their last five outings and now face the daunting task that could keep them from qualifying for the post-season play and has plagued them all season.

The team has lacked consistency in all areas and focus.

"When we get down [outscored], our mindset changes," Ray said. "We need to make sure we're playing fundamental baseball."

Christian Thorpe swings at a pitch versus Bakersfield Thursday night.

Workshops have begun to discuss redistricting

JAMIE STEWART
The Shafter Press

The Kern County Administration Office has begun its series of workshops regarding redistricting, which takes place every 10 years.

This process will draw up boundary lines for the different districts in the county, which makes up the constituency of the different areas of the county.

Presentations were made at a recent workshop explaining what a "community of interest" is considered to be, which is part of the equation when the district lines are drawn. These are considered important in making sure that all factions of the county are represented on the different Board of Supervisors, Congressional Districts, and State Senate Districts.

REGIONAL

Beginning with the Voters Rights Act of California, which was enacted over a decade ago, strides have been made in making sure that all communities are properly represented.

During the workshop, a community of interest was deemed a community that has similar interests, cultural similarities, that also reside in the same area, which can be properly mapped.

A number of the participants had questions on what makes up a community.

Presenters explained that any members of a city which have a vision in common and can be mapped by a district line can be considered. There are exceptions, such as political affiliations and race.

District lines were redrawn recently in Kern County, which, for example, changed the district that David Couch currently represents. Before the lines were redrawn, he represented a large portion of western Kern County, including Taft, Maricopa, and the area, but was moved further east to include Arvin and Lamont.

There is also going to be an in-person workshop for information on the redistricting process. This workshop will be held on Saturday, July 31 at the Kern County Board Chambers at 1115 Truxtun Avenue in Bakersfield. It will begin at 10 a.m. You can also attend the workshop virtually by going to <https://bit.ly/3kbEcSq>.

SHAFTER CITY COUNCIL
NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

Notice is hereby given that on Tuesday, August 3, 2021, at 6:00 p.m., at the Shafter Veterans Hall, 309 California Avenue, Shafter, California, the Shafter City Council will conduct a public hearing to consider possible reallocation of expenditures for Fiscal Year 2018-2019 Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Funding, estimated to be $83,000. A reallocation would require the cancellation of funding for additions, upgrades, and improvements to the Shafter Community Pool located at 269 Poso Avenue. The City Public Works Director has identified a funding shortage for planned park improvements at Veterans Park to be made possible through CDBG funding allocations for Fiscal Year 2019-2020, 2020-2021, and 2021-2022 that plans to make a formal request of the City Council to authorize reallocating Fiscal Year 2018-2019 funds to this project. The City is seeking community assistance to identify eligible and qualifying projects as possible alternatives for the reallocated funding. For those wishing to propose a project, it is requested that all information including project description and estimated costs be provided to the City Clerk at Shafter City Hall, 336 Pacific Avenue, Shafter, CA 93263, no later than 5:00 p.m., Friday, July 30, 2021. Projects that the City may consider include but are not limited to community park facilities, street and alley construction, water, sewer, drainage infrastructure and public buildings.

Said hearing is open to the public and all persons interested are invited to attend and be heard. Dicha audiencia está abierta al público y todas las personas interesadas están invitadas a asistir y ser escuchadas. Información acerca de esta financiación del proyecto está archivada en la oficina de la Secretaría de la Ciudad en la Municipalidad, 336 Pacific Avenue, Shafter, California, y está disponible para revisión pública. HOW TO ADVERTISE
EFFECTIVELY AND ECONOMICALLY

Our sales representatives are pleased to help you compose the most effective ad at a minimum cost.
Here are two key points to remember about your ads:
1. If it's an item you're selling, remember to include as much information as possible. The more potential buyers know about the item you have for sale, the more interest they have in calling you.
2. Our reputation for Classified Advertising results is excellent. But not every potential buyer will read your ad on the same day.

The majority of our private party advertisers take advantage of our discount rates. This simply means that you order your ad for two consecutive issues, but should you get the results you desire before the ad has expired, you may call and cancel the ad and be refunded for the days
the ad did not appear. Except for GR - no refunds or changes accepted.

GENERAL POLICY

1. Rates and deadlines subject to change without notice.
2. The Shafter Press and Wasco Tribune make every effort to avoid errors in advertisements. Each ad is carefully read back for approval. However, mistakes sometimes slip through. We ask that you check your ad carefully.
If you should find an error, report it to the Classified Department right away by calling 661-292-5100 and asking for Classified. We regret that we cannot be responsible for more than one incorrect publication if you do not call the error to our attention. The Shafter Press and Wasco Tribune cannot be liable for an amount greater than the amount paid for such advertising.
