$50K loss in Fabrie break-in

Fabrie Jewelry Store was the victim of a burglary over the weekend, with the culprit or culprits getting away with an estimated $50,000 worth of merchandise.

Richie Fabrie, owner of the store, said that he didn't discover that he had been burglarized until Monday morning when he opened the store. "The alarm system was still armed. It didn't go off, so whoever did this had to have disabled it."

Once entering the store, Fabrie noticed that the cases in the back of the store were open and the contents were gone. "I would guess that they got away with around $50,000 worth of merchandise," Fabrie said.

Shafter Police Department arrived and took fingerprints and looked for any evidence in the front and the back of the store. The cases that had contained estate jewelry and higher-end jewelry were the cases that were emptied.

Honors for Veterans Day

The Minter Field Air Museum had the honor to participate in 100th year of a tradition that saw a huge crowd gathered for the Bakersfield Veterans Day Parade. The event, which took place in downtown Bakersfield, drew a lot of fans from around the county, as well as revelers paying their respects to the men and women who have served, or are still serving, the country.

Minter Field was represented by the yellow Follow Me Jeep, driven by the MFAM chairman of the board, WWII veteran Everett Williams. He was a B29 side gunner and engineer stationed in Guam. He flew 27 missions over Tokyo.

The museum also had a 1940 staff car driven by David Anderson. The passenger in the vehicle was Ronald Holdsworth, WWII veteran of the Royal Air Force. Holdsworth was a tailgunner on a Handley Page Halifax bomber. He flew over 32 mis-

Trunk-or-Treat at Congregational Church

JAMIE STEWART
The Shafter Press

The Shafter Congregational Church gave the community a safe option on Halloween night, holding a Trunk-or-Treat event in the church's parking lot. There were dozens of cars and trucks, each one decorated in a different theme. Kids could play games and collect candy at each car.

With community members' concerns over the safety of this holiday, events like this are rising in popularity. Mother Juanita Contreras said her kids had a great time at the event, and that it eased her mind to know the kids were having fun in a safe environment. "There were so many neat cars, and my children loved the games," said Contreras.

Pastor Mark Scialabba, Youth Pastor Spencer Carpenter and a good number of volunteers offered kids and their parents a time of fun and fellowship.

All of the vehicles were decorated in different themes.

The church is now gearing up for its annual fundraiser, the Holiday Dinner, later this month. The event includes a meal that See PASTRIES Page 3

Juan's son Daniel, who manages the bakery, said they haven't regretted their

Cemetery district gets transparency award

The Kern County Cemetery District, which includes both the Shafter and Wasco Cemeteries, were awarded the California Special Districts Association Transparency Certification at the California Association of Public Cemeteries at a meeting last month.

This program was created by the Special District Leadership Foundation in an effort to promote transparency in the operations and governance of special districts to the public and to provide special districts with an opportunity to showcase their efforts in transparency.

This certificate is recognized for two years; it emphasizes basic state and local transparency requirements.

The Kern County Cemetery District continues to be part of an elite group by reaching the Platinum Level of accreditation. Of the approximately 2,300 special districts.

In order to receive the award, a special district must demonstrate the completion of essential governance transparency requirements, including conducting ethics training for all board members, properly conducting an open meeting, and filing financial transactions and compensation reports in a timely manner.

The district also fulfilled 22 website requirements, including providing readily available information to the public, such as board agendas, past minutes, the current district budget, and the most recent financial audit.

starting a “Going Out of Business Sale” in the near future, with Richie deciding to retire. This incident makes the future uncertain. “The majority of the merchandise that we were going to sell for the big sale is gone. I don’t know what we have left to sell for it. I will have to think about our plans moving forward.”

Shafter Police Chief Kevin Zimmermann said that this was a very professional job and one that they have not seen in this area. “But, we have an evidence technician on our team, Melani Pailing, who has been trained at the finest institutes for just this kind of work, gathering latent evidence in scenes such as these.”

Zimmermann also said that all it takes is one piece of this type of evidence to help them apprehend the suspects. “The investigation is still in its infancy, but we are working hard on it and are continuing investigating while we are waiting for the latent tests to come back, such as looking for any witnesses, etc.”

There was no security footage of the perpetrators available, so they will have to rely on any evidence left at the scene, he said.

The investigation is ongoing.

The bakery opens at 4:30 a.m. to serve early risers and stays open until 9:30 p.m. to serve the crowd that wants a little something sweet before turning in.

They offer everything from doughnuts, pastries and cakes to tamales by the dozen. Lagunas said their best seller is the Mexican bread, followed closely by the croissants and cookies. They also have cakes for sale.

Daniel said business has been “very good” and that Shafter is the perfect fit for them.

The Lagunas family lived in Bakersfield for 19 years. Back in 2006, they moved from East Bakersfield, which Daniel described as loud and crazy. “Shafter is so much quieter and a better environment than where we came from. It’s a great place to live and have a business,” concluded Lagunas.

sions in France.

Shafter’s first fire truck also was in the parade. Driver Scott Hogstad, a MFAM member, followed the procession through downtown Bakersfield.

Another jeep was on display, with Arnold Martinez driving the antique vehicle with passenger WWII veteran Elmer “Frenchie” Defreeze, USMC. He joined the Marines at age 16 and served in the Pacific Theater.

There was also a special Minter Field Air Museum sign on wheels that was made by a Boy Scout last year as his Eagle Scout project.

The Bakersfield Veterans Day Parade has been tradition for decades, with a number of antique vehicles on display, as well as current equipment and vehicles used in the different branches of the military today.

“We are honored to be a part of this parade and its rich tradition. We enjoy bringing out our popular exhibits to entertain the kids and the adults,” museum leader Ron Pierce said. This is just a taste of the popularity that the museum enjoys as it brings history to life for many people in Shafter and the rest of the county.

The museum also will be represented at the Kern County Raceway Park and several other events coming up.

More than just a day off

of the military.

It is sad to see that more and more the holiday is celebrated for being a day off of school or work, or just one more day you don't have to worry about getting that load of bills in the mail.

Well, when it was first started back in 1918, it stood for the end of World War I. It was a day to recognize that victory and celebrate the brave men who had served in the war.

A lot of people don't even realize the difference between Veterans Day and Memorial Day; they just know both of them as time off. Memorial Day honors those men and women who served and are no longer living. Veterans Day honors all veterans – those living and dead.

My father-in-law was a veteran of the Korean War. He was wounded in action and received numerous medals for his service in the U.S. Army. My dad served in the U.S. Navy and was stationed in Japan when I was little. Growing up, we always had a great respect for the military and the men and women who serve in it.

I didn't really know any other way until I grew older and found that there were plenty of people who were antimilitary. I couldn't fathom how someone could be against the forces that help keep them out of harm's way and maintain the freedoms they enjoy every day.

After 9/11, it seemed that patriotism was back at the forefront, at least for a time. We were all Americans, no matter our political affiliation, ethnicity or religious beliefs. We were together in a battle for our way of life that had been invaded like no other time in our history.

This unity dissipated as time went on; the shine wearing off of our new-found sword of strength.

Now, it seems that there are plenty of people who are again making their hateful voices heard. The military is attacked in the news, on our own soil, by the very people they have sworn to protect.

I believe everyone has a right to the freedom of speech, to say what they want – one of the rights that is fought for us to maintain. It is just sad that the very rights we have because of the brave men and women in the military enable some to tear them down. I love and respect our military and want to thank them for serving everyone in this country so bravely, even the ones who don't appreciate the sacrifices made.

Generals rally comes up short in playoffs

JAMIE STEWART
The Shafter Press

A football game is a contest made up of four quarters. Unfortunately, on Friday night, the Shafter Generals only showed up for two.

Up against the Arvin Bears in the first round of the Division V playoffs, Shafter saw the Bears dominate them in every phase of the game in the first half. After spotting the Generals a two-point safety on their first series, the Bears scored 28 unanswered points.

The Generals troubles started on offense, kickoff 95 yards for a touchdown, getting the Generals back in the game at 28-16. With the crowd behind them, the Generals had the momentum and held the Bears on their next possession. But, the Generals offense gave the ball back with one of their three turnovers of the night, killing the drive.

Arvin made them pay with a quick strike touchdown, making it a three-score game once again. Shafter kept up the pressure at the beginning of the fourth quarter and cut into the lead once again with a 35-yard touchdown pass from Sanchez to Felix Chacon, making the score 35-23. Shafter's defense gave the Generals the ball back with over six minutes to play, and the Generals responded with a series of short passes that got them down inside the 29-yard line. Sanchez found the endzone again to cut the lead to 35-30.

Arvin was unable to move the ball on the next series and had to punt. The Generals started the drive deep in their own end. After a penalty backed them up even further, Shafter saw its hopes end when Sanchez threw a quick pass to the left and it was picked off by a Bear defender who returned 20 yards for a touchdown, to make the final score 41-30.

After the game, Coach Pierucci told the team that it was frustrating to watch his team not show up to play until the second half. "A game is four quarters guys. We only played a half a game. You know you are a better team than they are, I know you are a better team. I hope you juniors and sophomores take this experience and remember it and use it for next year."

He went on to say that he was very proud of those guys, the way they battled back after starting the season so slow, almost mirroring the game that they just played. He admired them for the way that they didn't give up and gave it all and kept getting better.

Arvin will now go on to play the winner of the game between Strathmore and Taft in the quarterfinals.

Jackson Sanchez outruns the defenders to the end zone.

with the hosts unable to sustain a drive because of missed blocking assignments and numerous dropped passes, giving the Bears the ball in good field position.

As in the first meeting between the teams three weeks ago, Arvin was successful in the first half on offense, mixing in some gimmick plays with some effective running by their speedy quarterback. Down 14-3, it seemed the Generals had successfully pinned Arvin deep in their own territory, making them start their drive inside their own 10-yard line.

But, in a play that exemplified the Generals' first half, a Bear running back ran through the Generals' defense, with at least six defenders getting their hands on him, none of them able to wrap him up for a tackle. Instead, the Bear back ping-ponged his way 92 yards for a touchdown, making the score 28-2, Shafter did manage to score once on a Jackson Sanchez 11-yard run to cut the lead to 28-9 at the half.

The Generals seemed to be righting the ship at the beginning of the second half when Leo Fernandez took the second half Sanchez finds Chacon in the end zone.

Devon Sundgren gains valuable yardage.

NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property.

NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may visit the Internet Web site address listed below for information regarding the sale of this property, using the file number assigned to this case file number. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale.

EFFECTIVELY AND ECONOMICALLY

Our sales representatives are pleased to help you compose the most effective ad at a minimum cost. Here are two key points to remember about your ads:
1. If it's an item you're selling, remember to include as much information as possible. The more potential buyers know about the item you have for sale, the more interest they have in calling you.
2. Our reputation for Classified Advertising results is excellent. But not every potential buyer will read your ad on the same day. The majority of our private party advertisers take advantage of our discount rates. This simply means that you order your ad for two consecutive issues, but should you get the results you desire before the ad has expired, you may call and cancel the ad and be refunded for the days the ad did not appear. Except for GR -- no refunds or changes accepted.

COPY ACCEPTANCE

The Shafter Press and Wasco Tribune reserves the right to revise, reclassify, edit, reject or cancel any ad at any time for any reason.
